RE: KARTA IGLESIAS

To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the opportunity to observe Karta as an undergraduate and graduate student in Music Theory. He was also a graduate assistant in the Aural Theory sequence while pursuing a master's degree in Composition. As a student, Karta is capable of pursuing a topic with a degree of diligence and enthusiasm. When his enthusiasm is properly directed, he is able to organize and express his ideas as well as develop conclusions in a logical and perceptive manner. As a teacher, his enthusiasm is an asset to his personality. He communicates well, is sensitive to individual differences and organizes material so that they motivate as well as challenge the student.

I sincerely hope that he is given serious consideration and that he has the opportunity to demonstrate the fine qualities that I have mentioned.

Sincerely,

Ms. Ann Hawkins
Director of Academic Studies
